Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

CIBC Asset Management Inc. (CAMI, the Manager, or Portfolio Advisor) is the portfolio advisor of Axiom Global Growth Portfolio (the Portfolio). The Portfolio invests in units of various CIBC Private Pools (the Underlying Funds) which can be found in the Top Positions table of the Summary of Investment Portfolio.

The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the six-month period ended February 28, 2025. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Portfolio's net asset value increased by 1% during the period, from $61,653 as at August 31, 2024 to $62,462 as at February 28, 2025. Positive investment performance was partially offset by net redemptions of $3,467, resulting in an overall increase in net asset value.

Class A units of the Portfolio posted a return of 7.0% for the period. The Portfolio's primary benchmark, the MSCI World Index (the primary benchmark), returned 11.9% for the same period. The Portfolio's blended benchmark (the blended benchmark) returned 8.5% for the same period, and comprises 29% S&P 500 Index, 21% MSCI EAFE Index, 16% S&P/TSX Composite Index, 10% FTSE World Government Bond Index (Hedged to CAD), 10% FTSE Canada Universe Overall Bond Index, 10% MSCI Emerging Markets Index, 4% S&P/TSX Composite Dividend Index. The blended benchmark closely reflects the asset classes the Portfolio invests in, and provides a more useful comparative to the Portfolio's performance. The Portfolio's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the primary and blended benchmarks' returns. See the section Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Portfolio.

The Portfolio has a target asset allocation of 29% U.S. equities, 21% international equities, 16% Canadian equities, 10% Canadian fixed income securities, 10% emerging markets equities, 10% global fixed income securities and 4% Canadian income-generating investments.

Over the last few months of 2024, the U.S. Federal Reserve Board (the Fed) lowered short-term interest rates by a cumulative 1.0%. The U.S. economy navigated a "soft landing," meaning inflation declined without a significant slowdown in growth or material increase in unemployment. The Fed's December 2024 round of economic projections included an increase in its estimate for inflation and a corresponding reduction in the number of expected interest-rate cuts for 2025. Later in the period, the Fed further increased its core inflation forecast for 2025, albeit to a still moderate 2.5%.

Following the U.S. election in November 2024, the policy outlook and policy enactments of the new U.S. administration, particularly related to trade policy, contributed to market volatility.

Over the period, the U.S. equity market outperformed the global equity market, although both generated positive returns. The U.S. dollar strengthened by 5.82%.

International equity markets rose sharply over the period, with value stocks outperforming growth stocks. The European Central Bank lowered its key interest rates by 0.75%. This led to an acceleration in lending growth within the eurozone, which supported European banks. European defence stocks rose amid increased defence spending by European countries in response to ongoing geopolitical conflicts.

The Canadian equity market rose, buoyed by strong performance in the information technology, financials, materials and energy sectors. This reflected a stable economy with falling inflation, relatively steady employment, resilient consumer spending and declining interest rates.

The outlook for the Canadian equity market changed significantly in response to the threat of tariffs on Canadian goods, including energy. The prospect of a protracted trade conflict increased the risks of higher inflation, slower demand for Canadian exports, higher unemployment and weaker consumer sentiment. The Canadian dollar fell by 8% relative to the U.S. dollar in the first two months of 2025, while the price of gold increased by 8.6%.

North American bond yields generally declined over the period as inflation continued to moderate. Bond markets were also impacted by the potentially inflationary policies from the new U.S. administration, which led longer-term bond yields to rise.

In Canada, the economy remained fairly resilient, although slower growth and slightly higher unemployment resulted in the Bank of Canada (the BoC) lowering interest rates from 4.50% to 3.00%. At the end of the period, the market was anticipating two to three interest-rate cuts from the BoC by the end of 2025. Interest-rate expectations increased due to the potential need to support the economy in the face of tariff measures imposed by the U.S., which added significant uncertainty to the market.

The Fed entered 2025 expected to lower the federal funds rate twice, although expectations of an additional 0.25% cut were built into market pricing for the balance of the year. The shift was a result of relatively weaker economic data, although potential tariffs and the consequent inflationary pressures also clouded the market outlook.

The Canadian yield curve, defined as the difference between two-year and 30-year bond yields, steepened significantly in 2024 and early 2025. This was largely driven by the BoC's policy easing, in addition to tariff threats, which caused longer-term yields to rise. The U.S. treasury yield curve also steepened significantly in the second half of 2024.

Canadian bonds outperformed U.S. bonds, partially as a result of Canada's greater progress with normalizing inflation. Corporate bonds outperformed government bonds as credit spreads (the difference in yield between corporate and government bonds of similar maturity) narrowed, reflecting strong demand for higher-risk assets and better-than-anticipated corporate profitability.

In China, consumer and business confidence remained depressed and labour and housing markets weak, while deflationary pressures persisted. In Europe, the Middle East and Africa, as well as in Latin America, fiscal and monetary policy diverged.

After reducing interest rates in August and November, the Bank of England held its rate steady in December, as did the Bank of Japan.

CIBC U.S. Equity Private Pool was the most significant contributor to the Portfolio's performance, followed by CIBC Canadian Equity Private Pool and CIBC International Equity Private Pool.

Recent Developments

The level of geopolitical risk disrupted the global economy and financial markets in unprecedented and unpredictable ways. Threatened and actual impositions of tariffs and other trade-related actions by the U.S., China and other global actors, and any counter-tariff and non-tariff retaliatory measures by Canada, Europe and others, may have further negative impacts on the Canadian and global economy, and on financial markets. These events could exacerbate other preexisting political, social and economic risks and cause substantial market volatility and uncertainty in financial markets. It is unclear what further actions may be taken by governments and the resulting impact on global economies, businesses and financial markets. These factors may adversely affect the Portfolio's performance. The Manager continues to monitor ongoing developments and the impact to investment strategies.

Related Party Transactions

The Manager receives fixed administration fee from the Portfolio, in return, the Manager pays certain operating expenses which includes custodial fees (including all applicable taxes) and the fees for fund accounting, reporting, and fund valuation (including all applicable taxes) to the Custodian. Where applicable, securities lending fees are applied against the revenue received by the Portfolio.

Ratio has been annualized.

Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The total increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period.

Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional units of the Portfolio, or both.

This information is presented as at February 28, 2025 and August 31 of the period(s) shown.

Management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs), incurred by or allocated to a class of units for the period shown, expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value of that class during the period.

- The decision to waive management fees and/or fixed administration fees is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving management fees and/or fixed administration fees may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders. The management expense ratio before waivers or absorptions includes the fees attributable to exchange traded funds, where applicable.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs before income taxes expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period.
- The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Portfolio pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Portfolio. Management fees are based on the Portfolio's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses related to the Manager's activities, and trailing commissions are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Portfolio. The Portfolio is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units. No management fees or incentive fees are payable by the Portfolio that, to a reasonable person, would duplicate a fee payable by an Underlying Fund for the same service.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Portfolio for the period ended February 28, 2025. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

Past Performance

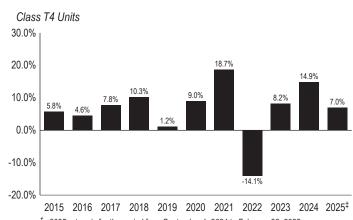

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

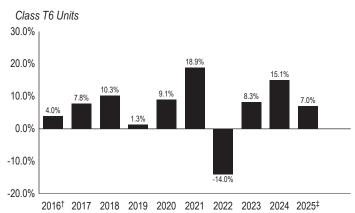

The Portfolio's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Portfolio for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. The bar charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.
